I highly recommend Barb as a keynote speaker for any event! Leading our retreat as our amazing speaker was beyond our expectations. She is vibrant, honest, detailed and an extreme Jesus lover and it shows with her passion as she spoke truth into us all. We grew immensely through her teaching. Her heart is tender and her love for others shows. We could not be more thankful for this time spent with her.

She tailored her message to our women and our theme for the event. She is an engaging and entertaining speaker. Her love for God's Word and ability to teach it inspired our women to seek out more opportunities for Bible Study in our ministry.

Barb is professional and timely and her content is on point. She recorded a virtual presentation with us and her engagement on the screen was dynamic. Each audience member could feel she was speaking directly with them.

-Erin Gerster, Event Manager, Compassion International

We invited Barb back to speak at our full-day conference for emerging leaders because she is so dynamic! Not only was she well received by the audience she was easy to work with, personable and spent time listening to the other speakers and interacting with the attendees. Her high energy and enthusiasm were amazing. You won't be disappointed when hiring Barb for your next event.

-Sara Swisher, Vice President Talent & Workforce, Toledo Chamber of Commerce

Barb was a keynote speaker at our women's conference just this past weekend. She was a pleasure to work with, so flexible and positive. When Barb got up on the platform to speak she just came alive. Winning Your Worry Battle

Do you or someone that you know struggle with worry or anxiety? If you've been stressed out during the day or pacing the floor sleepless at night, the good news is that God wants you to WIN your worry battle!

By taking an in-depth look at Joshua 1 as well as Jesus' example in the New Testament, Barb shares two practical tools that work to equip your audience to win their worry battles so that they can experience God's power, peace, provision and promises in their every day life - no matter what trials or challenges they are facing.

The Power of Surrender

Is there something in your life that you've been trying to control, but you can't? No matter how hard we try to protect what we love, fix what's broken or try to keep everything on track, there are just some things we're powerless over. What do we do, especially when so much is on the line?

Barb teaches powerful lessons from Jesus' time in the wilderness to provide powerful principles and practical next steps to help you experience the peace that comes from letting go and living like Jesus! On the other side of surrender, we discover God's great adventure of faith and the opportunity to use our lives experience to make a difference.

Standing Together in Tough Times (Race, Grace & Gospel)

Christians are more divided than ever. But, it doesn't have to be that way!

In this powerful talk, Barb teaches about Nehemiah's quest to rebuild the wall around Jerusalem. In the midst of powerful opposition, Nehemiah teaches us ten principles of unity that can equip you to experience Jesus' dream of unity for the church today. If you want to create a biblical, gospel-centered about unity and the gospel, this message is for you!

God, Give Me Patience...NOW!

Have you been praying for God to give you patience? Is there a breakthrough, renew or rescue that you've been waiting for, but it hasn't happened yet?

Using Hannah's story in 1 Samuel, Barb teaches the Patience Path, which includes practical next steps to transform your waiting journey from frustration and bitterness to faith and blessing so that you can wait with peace and purpose instead of in pain or burdened by your problems.

Taking Care of You

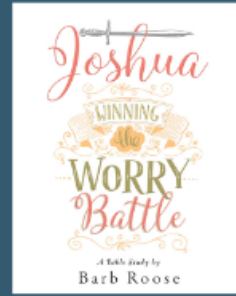

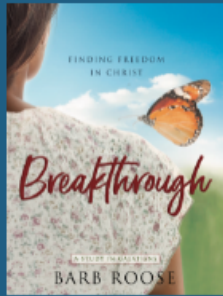

Do you take care of everyone before taking care of yourself? Do you feel guilty about taking a day off or push yourself past exhaustion on a regular basis? It's time to embrace that selfcare is not selfish!

No matter the age or stage of your audience, women will enjoy Barb's biblical teaching on self-care as well as the fun and practical tips she offers to equip women to live for the glory of God, benefit others, and to bless themselves!

BONUS! Women's Ministry/Small Group Leader Workshop

Do you want more women to experience your Bible studies?
Are you looking to attract new volunteers or recruit new leaders?

“The presentation left me wanting more – more info, more training, more insights into reaching women for Jesus. Thanks for having a well-organized, informative, and inspiring workshop.”
-Amy E.

When you book me for a women's conference or retreat, I would love to provide a BONUS women's ministry workshop session for your women's ministry leaders or small group leaders. I love equipping leaders to love and serve others - and it is a joy for me to invest in local churches everywhere!

For 14 years, I served on staff at my local church. One of my roles as Executive Director of Ministry for our five campuses and 9,000 attendees was developing training resources and curriculum for our 400+ small group and Bible study leaders. I'm passionate about teaching leaders how to lead others well, how to recruit new leaders and grow spiritually themselves.

I offer two workshops that focus on increasing Bible study attendance, attracting and retaining volunteers and connecting with the next generation. I've facilitated these workshops at LifeWay Christian Stores, churches and during leadership events.

Workshop #1: Creating Connection for Women at Every Age and Stage

Workshop #2: Beautiful Bible Studies: Draw Women In & Keep Them Coming Back

Let's talk about how to add a 90-minute workshop either before, during or after your event. I would love to add value to the leaders who serve your church so well - and this is a great event to invite new or prospective leaders.
